School Closes.

The Lancaster Graded school closed this week with several very enjoyable and interesting entertainments. The class day exercises will be held this Thursday afternoon, the regular commencement exercises to be held Friday night, at the Christian church. A more extended notice will be given in next issue of this paper.

Dollar Wheat.

The American Society of Equity has issued a call for a national convention to be held at Omaha June 5th, 6th and 7th, to determine the marketing and pricing of grain. It is proposed to have all the delegates agree on a plan to fix the price of wheat in the farmers hand at one dollar a bushel, and also to have farmers make their obligations fall due January 1st instead of October 1st, so the wheat will not have to be dumped on the market to pay bills.

Here's Useful Land Measure.

Here is a useful land-measuring device: "Use two poles or strips of hard wood, about an inch in diameter. Cut one off five feet six inches and the other four feet six inches long. Measure off one foot from the upper end of longest pole and preferably the heaviest one. Now fasten the shortest pole to the longest one at this point by driving a nail through it about one inch from the end. Spread the lower ends so as to be exactly five feet six inches between the two points, which should be a little tapered. Nail a light piece of wood across about halfway up to keep points in place. The end extending a foot at top is to be used as handle. By raising one end alternately and revolving in the hand, it can be used to measure off land as fast as a person walks. It takes three lengths to a rod."

Government Whitewash.

Every year at this season we reproduce the following for the benefit of spring whitewashes: "Take half a bushel of lime, slack it with boiling water, cover during the process to keep in steam. Strain the liquid through a fine sieve or strainer, and add to it a peck of salt, previously dissolved in warm water, three pounds of ground rice boiled to a thin paste and stirred in while hot, half a pound of cloan glue, previously dissolved by soaking in cold water, and then hanging over a slow fire in a small pot hung in a larger one filled with water. Add five gallons of hot water to the mixture, stir well, and let stand for a few days, covered from dirt. It should be applied hot, for which purpose it can be kept in a kettle or portable furnace. "Coloring" butter may be added as desired. For cream color add yellow ochre; pearl lead, add lampblack or ivory black; fawn, add proportionately four pounds of amber to one pound of common lampblack, common stone color, add proportionately four pounds raw amber to two pounds lampblack."

Here's an Example.

The customer who will demand the most thorough investigation in the store in his town, and yet who is willing to buy "sight unseen" from a mail order house, is not unknown to the retail merchants of the smaller American cities and towns, writes Frederic J Haskin in the Courier-Journal. A vehicle dealer in an Indiana town was attempting to sell a $65 buggy to a customer. There was an hour's talk over it and then the prospective customer pulled out a page of a catalog and said he believed he would send for a $49 47 buggy pictured therein. The dealer protested that his $65 buggy was worth more for the difference in price, that the freight on the buggy would be $7 or $8, but to no avail. Finally the merchant said: "Well to tell the truth, I have a buggy upstairs exactly like the picture in your catalog, and I will let you have it for $49 27, thus saving you the freight." "All right," responded the delighted customer: "let's go up and see it." "Not on your life," replied the dealer. That buggy we sell "sight unseen," just like the mail order house sells it. We can't show a buggy at that price." The customer thought awhile, then bought the $65 buggy.

BARYTES.

Mineral, Recently Discovered in this County, is Being Found in Large Quantities. Brings Money to Farmers.

The discovery of barytes in Garrard county points to the developing into large proportions of a feature which will bring much money to our people. It has been found that the mineral is here in unlimited quantities, and that too of the best quality. The Record had a talk with Mr E H Jones, vice president and general manager of the Clinch Valley Barytes Co, this week, and he tells us the Garrard county article is far superior to any yet found in Kentucky. His company wants all the barytes they can get, and are shipping it as fast as it can be hauled from the mines. At present, they are operating in the Marksbury neighborhood.

Barytes is found in a vein, which begins at the surface of the earth. There is no telling how deep it runs, as in one place workmen have already hauled to a depth of 30 feet and there is no sign of exhaustion. In some places it only reaches a depth of a few feet, however, being found just as in any other mineral. It is a hard substance, almost as firm as coal, but more easily broken. It is gotten out by blasting. The mineral is then loaded into wagons and hauled to Lancaster, where it is weighed, placed in box cars and shipped to Honaker, Va, where the plant is located.

Barytes is used in making paint, mechanical rubber goods, and other articles. It is ground as fine as powder, and sold to the paint factories and other firms using it. It has been found of inestimable value in paint, as it contains a substance which adds greatly to the durability of the paint. A "filler" is used in all paints, rubber goods, etc, but all those heretofore used have proven or detract from the durability thereof instead of increasing its usefulness. As stated above, barytes has been found to contain a substance which adds to the life of the article in which it is placed, thus causing manufacturers to seek it and use it in preference to the old ingredients. Heretofore, barytes has been imported from Germany, possibly half the amount used being found in this country. Of the quantity used, possibly ninety five per cent. is placed in plants and colors, the remaining five per cent. going into the manufacture of mechanical rubber goods.

The chief trouble in the mining of the Garrard county barytes is that of getting it to the rail road, the present mines being located about six to eight miles from town. However, this is proving a good thing for those owning wagons and teams, as they get good prices for their work. The company, when barytes is located, makes a contract with the land owner for the amount of barytes taken therefrom, and it is mined, hauled to the depot and weighed, the land-owner receiving his pay accordingly. As the company is paying out from $700 to $800 per week in the county, the discovery of the mineral was, indeed, a rich find for our people. The Clinch Valley people are looking for all the barytes they can find, and as it is quite probable the mineral will be found in unlimited quantities, the outlook for the placing of many dollars into the pockets of the Garrard county land owners is quite rosy.

CENTRAL RECORD

ISSUED WEEKLY. $100 A YEAR.

LOUIS LANDRAM, Edr.-Pubr.

Lancaster, Ky., May 17, 1907.

What a glorious picture of civilization we have in San Francisco! Strikers assaulting car men with bricks and stones; strike breakers shooting strikers; police trying to enforce Marquis of Queensbury rules. And yet if arbitration is suggested people ask if you want to deprive man of his natural rights.

Mr Bryan says he believes that lawyers can be prevented from selling their services to corrupt clients. If he will run for the presidency on that platform he will have a good chance for election. The enforcement of such a principle would be a long step toward the millennium.

As a metaphysical problem, why does disappointment in love so frequently lead to rat poison? Such things are not the result of mere chance. There must be some reason for it. Can there be any connection between this tendency and woman's aversion to rats?

The B & O has decided to abolish train porters on others than sleeping cars. Bravo! Now if it will abolish the peanut boy and order brakemen to throw drunks and mashers off the trains it will gain patronage.

Heretics who doubt that Corn is King are invited to reflect that the cob now supplies us with alcohol, cider, vinegar and pure maple sirup, while the husk furnishes forth much Vuelta Aja tobacco. What can Coal and Cotton say to this?

The guilt of the Chicago man who cut his brother's throat in a quarrel over a phonograph will depend on whether the brother insisted on working the machine, in which case he has been justifiable.

The price of country girls lured into Chicago is now quoted at $50 a head. Yes, Chicago ought to send a few more missionaries to the benighted Turks.

Fighting Bob Evans is suffering from the gout, but there's one comfort—he has a vocabulary fully equal to voicing his displeasure.

PRICES NO OBJECT!

Great Quit-Business Sale will continue until June 1st, fourteen days longer, by the big C. & G. Salvage Company, for H. Patterson, Proprietor of

The Blue Front, Lancaster.

$10,000 worth of up-to-date merchandise left, which must be sold at once, at your own price.

On account of the failing health of his family, the entire stock of goods of H. Patterson, proprietor of the popular "Blue Front," at Lancaster, Kentucky, has been placed in the hands of the great C & G Salvage Company to be disposed of by June 1st—FOURTEEN DAYS LONGER. The stock embraces Clothing, Shoes, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishings, Dry Goods, Carpets, Trunks and numerous other articles. The entire $22,000 stock and fixtures to be closed out in ten days regardless of cost and value. Greatest sale ever known. Thirty Five cents on the dollar and less.

Mr Patterson's misfortune is your good fortune. On account of the poor health of his family and himself, and upon the advice of his physicians, he is forced to quit business in Lancaster and seek a more congenial climate. Immediately following the close of the sale and the winding up of his other business interests in Lancaster, he will join his invalid wife at Hendersonville, North Carolina. Mr Patterson is forced to this sale with reluctance but health is more valuable than worldly possessions. As the people of Lancaster know, Mrs Patterson was forced to go to Hendersonville many months ago. The store has been enlarged, the business has grown to big proportions and the largest stock of fresh, clean goods that Mr Patterson has ever bought arrived less than a month ago and are just now ready for the market. This sale is one of the greatest and most stupendous in the history of Kentucky, and merchandise will be sold for Thirty Five cents on the dollar as long as it lasts. Practically everything in house is new 1907 spring goods—nothing old or shelf-worn. Those who know the policy of the C & G Salvage Company will know that the prices will be no object in this sale. The man with the slim purse can cut a big figure in this sale, as every quarter will be as big as a dollar when the doors open again at ### 8:30 Saturday Morning, May 18, and for 14 DAYS THEREAFTER.

All fixtures in the store will be sold. They embrace five floor show-cases, two stoves, three counter show-cases, lace rack, jewelry case, umbrella case, ribbon case, three thread cases, sixteen counters window fixtures and a Mosler Combination Fire-proof Safe; also household goods and my fine buggy mare, phaeton, runabout and spring wagon. My loss is your gain. Enough has been said. H. Patterson and the C & G Salvage Company vouch for every statement made in this advertisement and stand ready to back every word. The store is now closed to arrange the mammoth stock for the big sale.

Come one and all. Saturday, May 18th, and for 14 Days Thereafter.

"Can't Afford to Paint."

The man who says that, forgets that painting properly done is economy, and the fact is he can't afford NOT to paint.

How often you require to paint is largely dependent upon the paint you use.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

outlast others. They are the most economical paints you can use, because they cover most and wear longest. Add to this their good appearance, and you have perfect paints—The Sherwin-Williams Paints.

They are made for many different kinds of painting. Whatever it is you want to paint—a house, or anything in or out of the house—we make the right paint for that particular purpose—not one slap-dash mixture for all.

The Central Record.

Supplement.

Lancaster, Ky., May 17, 1907.

INDIAN OF MEXICO DOCTILE.

Essentially a Man of Peace, He Wants to Be Let Alone.

The simple minded, patient, docile Indian of Mexico is eminently peaceful. Bountiful nature and perpetual summer combine to palliate his improvidence. He can not see the necessity of laying up anything for a rainy day. It rains half the days in Mexico anyhow, but that only makes the mangoes grow larger and cheaper. If he has no tortillas today some of his neighbors have, and they will gladly share, for conditions may be reversed tomorrow, says Modern Mexico.

These Mexican Indians make the best and the poorest servants in the world. Their greatest charm from this standpoint is their perfect appreciation of their position. Always polite, never presuming, with hat in hand, it is always "your servant" and "with your permission." In the household they ask a half holiday once a fortnight with never a word of complaint when working hours last from daylight to midnight.

The Mexican Indian does not want to fight. All he asks is to be let alone. His politeness and affectionate nature are inborn. His love for children is particularly marked. It is a common sight to see a laborer in the street with two or three of white cotton clothing to his back or his name is a woman with a baby in her arms and holding the child's face between her hands, deliver a resounding smack and chuck it under the chin. And the same unconscious and entirely unaffected manner with a young man take his sombrero from his head and reverently kiss the hand of some ancient relative in a tattered dress when he encounters her in the crowded thoroughfare.

TWO OLD CRONIES CELEBRATE.

Have Their Own Way of Observing the Spirit of Christmas.

"For many years," said Mr. Frank L. Shafer, of Cincinnati, at the Arlington, "a couple of old cronies of my acquaintance have had a unique way of celebrating their friendship on Christmas day."

"Punctually at noon on December 24, they meet at a certain rendezvous and Bill opens the game by buying a quart of wine. When this is consumed Tom makes a purchase of a second quart, the drinking of which consumes much time, and the story of their years is told and retold."

"The finale, which is an act of great seriousness, consists of Bill going down into the depths of his trousers and pulling forth a $20 gold piece, which he presents to his companion as an evidence of sincere appreciation. Without the loss of a second Tom makes a dive for his pocket and extends to the other a double eagle, accompanying the gift with fervent expressions of everlasting friendship. This quaint custom appears to be original with the principals of my story, and without going into detailed argument it would seem their plan is not altogether without merit."—Washington Herald.

Firers of Fatal Shot Unknown.

"You know how a soldier traitor is put to death," said the colonel. "The traitor stands blindfolded and half a dozen privates shoot at him simultaneously. But perhaps you don't know that each of those privates, though he take the most careful aim, may afterward say without fear of contradiction that the traitor's blood does not stain his hands."

"This is the reason: Two of the rifles for this ghastly shooting are always loaded with blank cartridges. Then they are shuffled and no one knows which the harmless ones are. The executioners draw and each is as like as not to draw a harmless gun. So, when they shoot they can solace themselves for their un-Christianlike work with the thought that maybe they are only shooting a blank cartridge at the poor, blindfolded wretch before them."

Hit the Lawyer Hard.

Joseph H. Choate, the famous lawyer and diplomat, said at a lawyers' dinner:

"We lawyers couldn't do better than resolve, on the new year, to be gentler in our cross-examinations. Rudeness in cross-examination never, never pays. This is a truth that I once saw proven in a damage suit."

"In this suit a cross-examining lawyer shouted at a witness in overalls: 'You there in the overalls, how much are you paid for telling untruths?'"

"'Less than you are,' the witness retorted, 'or you'd be in overalls, too.'"

King Edward's Chef.

King Edward's chef, M. Menager, has a salary of $9,000 a year, besides free lodging near the palace. He does nothing in connection with breakfast, but devotes his attention to preparing dinner, which is served at nine o'clock. Menus are furnished by the official known as master of the household, and after dinner M. Menager presents his bill, which is always paid on the spot.

Had to Concede It.

"Well," said Subbubs, "I've just weathered a little labor trouble that's costing me seventy-five per week."

"What?" exclaimed Citiman, "seventy-five dollars a week?"

"No; seventy-five cents. Our cook struck for a raise from $4.25 to $5."—Catholic Standard and Times.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Rules adopted May 13, 1898. These rules will be enforced. In order that the benefit of the Lancaster Graded Common School may be extended only to those entitled to same by the terms of the law, following rules are hereby adopted:

On ly the following children are entitled to free tuition in the Lancaster Graded Common School:

First. Those who are of legal school age and have a legal residence in the school district. The legal residence of pupils is with their parent or parents. If neither parent is living then their legal residence may be with their guardian or guardians whose legal residence is within the District.

Second. Children not entitled to free tuition may be admitted to the school on payment in advance of tuition at such rates as may from time to time be fixed by the Board of Trustees. Pupils not entitled to free tuition will not be received by the Principal into the school unless evidence is produced to him that tuition has been paid in advance for the time for which the pupil is entered, or on the order in writing of the Board of Trustees entered on their record book. A certified copy of such order presented to the Principal will be authority to him for the admission of a pupil or pupils named therein. No children under school age will be admitted at any time.

A copy attested: J. B. Kinnaird, Sect'y.

Poultry Raising Pays.

Farmers are coming to realize that poultry raising is one of the best paying lines in his business. Statistics show that the eggs sold alone pays him more money than the output of either corn or wheat. Now is the time of year to feed your fowls a Good Ton. Remember that only healthy hens lay: 4 1/4 not only cures Roup, Cholera, Gaps and Limberneck, but makes them lay. Give each sick chicken 3 to 3 drops 2 or 3 times a day, as a preventive give each chicken 1 to 3 drops in the feed once a day. Price 50 Cents. Guaranteed by your druggist, R. E. McRoberts.

Jack Taylor, Briar Hill, Ky. says: I gave my turkeys Bourbon Poultury Cure when they were dying and it cured them. It is the only remedy I have ever used that will cure sick turkeys. Sold guaranteed by Mount & Elkin.

C. V. Shipp, Clintonville, Ky. says: I have used and sold almost every hog remedy on the market and will say, Bourbon Hog Cholera Remedy is the only medicine I have ever found that will cure hog cholera. Sold and guaranteed by Mount & Elkin.

Navigator's Error.

Matchett.—He thought he had solved the problem of aerial navigation when he covered his airship with fly paper.

Gauss.—But he made a mistake when he used the sticky kind.—Chicago Daily News.

Her Good Guess.

"My dear," said the candidate, who had arrived home after the returns from 627 precincts had been received, "I have won a great moral victory."

"Oh," she replied, "then the other man must have received most of the votes."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Limit.

"They live in some obscure little village in the mountains of Tennessee, don't they?"

"Obscure little village is no name for it. Why, that town doesn't even get out souvenir postcards!"—Cleveland Leader.

Indulgent.

First Bull Terrier.—Why do you keep your master waiting so long when he calls you?

Second Ditto.—Oh, just to jolly him a little; he likes to hear himself whistle.—Detroit Free Press.

That Boy.

Did you ever think how it rejoices the heart of that boy to be permitted to go to town with father? It is the same way whether father drives out, no matter if it is only to get a pig of a neighbor. Get the boy up on the seat with you, says the Farm Journal. Be ready to answer all his questions and there will be a lot of them! Let him help you "hitch up." Trust him to hold the horses while you are in the store. Let him help you get the pig. In short, think of him as your right-hand man of to-morrow. It will do the boy good and you will be the better man for it.

Asses' Milk.

According to the London Daily Mail, there are several dairies for the production of asses' milk in that city, the milk being sent all over the country in sealed bottles, the price being six shillings (about $1.44) a quart. It is considered valuable for invalids or sickly children.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. "Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being affected. We then employed other doctors, but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics.
